Student of the Week

Next week we will have Royce sharing all of the wonderful things that make him special! We can't wait!

Word Of The Week

Next week our word is:

up

When you are reading with your child at home this week, stop when you get to this word and have your child read that word to you.

Literacy Quote of the Week

"Reading should not be presented to children as a chore or duty.

It should be offered to them as a precious gift."

— Kate DiCamillo

Notes

Please make sure that you have gone online to pay the $5 for our field trip or you have sent in $5. We will need to have everything turned in before next Thursday so that we will be ready to go! Thanks!

If you have not signed up to be a field trip volunteer and you are planning on joining us, please go to the sign up genius that was sent out yesterday and put your name on the list so that I can start making groups. Thank you!!

As crazy as it sounds our year is winding down☺. One of our end of the year celebrations recognizes all of the reading that the kindergartners have done. So in June we will celebrate with an ice cream reading party. This is for those students that have read and turned in reading logs for at least 75 books. Right now your child has read and turned in a log for _____ books. I am sending out this heads up so that if you need to do some extra reading at night you will have time. I will send home an extra book log in May as well so that you can use that to play catch up. Thanks!!
